techniques married with ancient tradition. This harmonious synthesis gives a stylish spin to the modern-day signature collection.

Date, Vadodara, Gujarat: It has been a satisfying long journey for Harshad Soni, who has carved a niche for himself as a bespoke designer. Not the one to participate in jewelry shows, Harshad Soni believes in creating timeless masterpieces and hosting the same to his esteemed clientele base from NRI's to affluent class to celebrities at his jewelry studio under the name “Harvish Jewels”.

Harvish Jewels is a premium jewellery studio that aspires to create unique, elegant Jewellery designs with a touch of tradition. More than just being a premium brand, Harvish Jewels is a destination in itself, acknowledged for its exemplary artistic designs, wide collection of jewellery, impeccable service and unconventional approach. This is what sets us apart, from any of our counterparts giving us a leading edge and preference from our customers.

History and Heritage

For the love of the City, Art & Tradition attached to it, Vaishali & Harshad Soni have been constantly striving for the last 30 years to revive and preserve this art by providing the traditional essence in all their designs to build up a legacy which is bound to give a serious artistic approach. The couple themselves is visionary and pioneer in the field of Gold, Diamonds, Gems and Colour Stones. They also hold a rich lineage of being associated with the one of the most eminent jeweller family, known to be the pioneer jewellers in the princely state of Baroda (now Vadodara). They are known to be constantly innovative in their approach with a penchant for new designs, along with recreating forgotten classical designs with modern essence. Being focused and committed jeweller and having taken over the mantle from their ancestors to being a remarkable craftsmen in their own right along with the mandate to preserve the fading tradition & culture. Some of the attributes to them are precision in work, simplicity, genuineness, honesty and an ardent lover and promoter of art.

GEMS stories

Emeralds belong to the mineral family known as beryl: several different mineral exist in the beryl like aquamarine, morganite and heliodor, but the Emerald is the most superior and valuable gemstone. A rare combination of uncommon geological and geochemical conditions are required for the formation of emeralds.

EMERALDS

The highest quality emeralds come from Colombian, Zambian & Brazilian mines.

Colombian emeralds will typically be the most expensive followed by Brazilian and Zambian stone.

The color of ruby ranges from bright red to dark reddish-brown which is due to traces of chromium in its crystal matrix.

The quality of a ruby is determined by its Colour, Cut, and Clarity, which along with Carat weight, affect its value. The brightest and most valuable “red” called blood-red or “pigeon blood”, commands a large premium over other rubies of similar quality.
